Finish a portion of the unfinished basement and repurpose old kitchen cabinetry for the purpose of a garden room. New garden room will be temporarily used as a temporary kitchen for a few months during the renovation of the main kitchen on the first floor. Once the new kitchen project is complete, the stove and oven will be removed and the room will officially become the garden room. A second room will be finished to serve as a second basement laundry room that will remain in place indefinitely. The connecting area between both the garden room and the laundry area at the bottom of the basement steps with exterior egress will also be finished for and used for exercrise equipment.
