

Optional Appendix

More information about health coverage offered by your employer.

This section contains information about any health coverage offered by your employer. It may help you determine whether you might be eligible for premium savings through the Massachusetts health insurance Marketplace, the Health Connector.

If you decide to complete an application for coverage through the Health Connector, you will be asked to provide the following information. This information is also requested on the Health Connector coverage application.

Employer name TOWN OF WESTWOOD		Employer Identification Number (EIN) 04-6001362
Employer address 580 HIGH STREET
City WESTWOOD		State MA	ZIP code 02090
Employer phone number 1 781-320-1072		Employer phone number 2
Email address benefits@townhall.westwood.ma.us
Who can be contacted about health coverage at this job? Veronica Biederman or Jennifer Kinnear, HR Generalists

Here is some basic information about health coverage offered by this employer:

As your employer, we offer a health plan to:

- All employees Some employees

Eligible employees are: working at least a .5 of a full time position for at least 6 months of the year

(Employer to include criteria for eligibility, e.g., hours worked, etc.)

Dependent coverage:

Information on whether this employer offers health insurance coverage to dependents:

- We do offer dependent coverage We do not offer dependent coverage

Eligible dependents are: legally married spouse and dependent children until turn 26 years old

(Employer to include criteria, e.g., just children, children and spouses, any other criteria, etc.)

Minimum Value and affordability of coverage offered:

- If checked, the coverage offered by this employer meets the federal Minimum Value standard (Minimum Value is also reported on Summary of Benefits and Coverage documents provided by the health insurance issuer).
- If checked, the cost of this coverage is intended to be affordable to you, based on the employer's information.

Please note: Even if your employer intends your coverage to be affordable, you may still be eligible for a premium discount. The Health Connector will use your household income, along with other factors, to determine whether you may be eligible for a premium discount. If, for example, your wages vary from week to week (perhaps you are an hourly employee or you work on a commission basis), if you are newly employed mid-year, or if you have other income losses, you may still qualify for a premium discount.

Additional employer information for employees

If you decide to shop for coverage in the Health Connector, you will have many features available to you to help you navigate the plan selection experience, such as plan helper tools, tutorial videos, and filters to help you narrow down the options that would be the best fit for you.

The information below corresponds to the tool on the Health Connector website that can help you determine whether you qualify for premium discounts. Completing this section is optional for employers, but will help ensure employees understand their coverage choices.

- Yes No Is the employee currently eligible for coverage offered by this employer, or will the employee be eligible for coverage in the next 3 months?

If the employee is not eligible today, including as a result of a waiting or probationary period, when is the employee eligible for coverage?

Date: Eligible on the 1st day of the month following 60 calendar days from start date.

For the lowest-cost individual plan that meets the Minimum Value standard offered only to the employee (not a family plan):

a. How much would the employee have to pay in premiums for this plan? $ 100

b. How often?

- Weekly Twice a month Quarterly
 Every 2 weeks Monthly Yearly

Employees can find out more about benefits offered by this employer by contacting or referring to:

<https://www.townhall.westwood.ma.us> Under Human Resources, Benefits
(may be an HR contact, a resource, or an appendix to this document)